Proving Yahusha Was Prophesied In The Old Testament

This breakdown is important because there are a lot of people who don't believe in Yahusha, and discredit the New Testament all together. Below are scriptures with precepts to prove without a shout of a doubt that he existed. The same Isaiah scriptures many use to prove Yahushua is not the son, Isaiah also has a great deal to say about him through the spirit of Yahuah. A lot of OT only people say, if Christ dead for our sins, why are we still in our captivity? He didn't die to bring us out of captivity. He died to repair the disconnect between us and the Most High because of our ancestors past sins(Romans 3:25).

Who Is The Prophet Like Unto Moses

The Most High said he was going to raise up another prophet in the midst of Israel like unto Moses.

Deuteronomy 18:15-18

The OT only believers say in verse 18, the Most High is talking about Joshua. Let's clear that up. Was Joshua like unto Moses? Did he have the words of the Most High in his mouth? Read: Joshua 1:1-2,5-8

So the Most High said he was going to be with him. So far it seems like that prophet is Joshua. He commanded Joshua to meditate on the word and to keep the word in his mouth. Read: Deuteronomy 34:7,9

Joshua was chosen by the Most High to lead Israel. The spirit of wisdom Moses had was placed on Joshua. Everything is pointing to Joshua. It seems that way until you continue to read: Deuteronomy 34:10.

Now this is the problem. It says there was no prophet like Moses after he died. Joshua did have wisdom like Moses, but he is not the prophet Moses was talking about. In Exodus 24:5-8 Moses brought the people under the first covenant to the Most High with the sprinkling of the blood. No other prophet has done that in the OT. But like unto Moses, Christ was even greater because the START(Hebrews 8:6, Romans 3:25, Acts 5:30-31) of the second covenant was through his own blood. Consider Matthew 17:1-5, even through Moses was there, the attention was placed on Christ and the Most High said "hear ye him" as it is written in the prophesy Deuteronomy 18:15.

He Is The Messenger of Yahuah (Daniel 3:18, 23-25, 28)

Isaiah 63:8-12, Joshua 5:11-15, Exodus 3:2-6, 13:21-22, 14:19-20, 23:20-21, James 2:1, 13:3-20, Proverbs 30:1-4

12. Zechariah 12:10

13. Isaiah 53:5-12

Galatians 1:4

Matthew 27:27-31

Matthew 27:12-14

John 1:29

1 Peter 1:18-19

Christ acknowledge the Most High was greater than him in John 14:28 and Mark 12:28-31, so there's no room to assume Christ put himself above the almighty. Christ was a man but full of the spirit of God. Read Isaiah 40:25, Matthew 4:8-10.

SIGNS/SEALS of YAHUAH V/S. MARK/Image of the BEAST

Old Testament (Hebrew) For "MARK"

Strong's #	Hebrew/Greek Word	Pronunciation	English Equivalent
H226	'owth	ōth	sign(s), token(s), ensign(s), miracles, mark

"The mark of the beast" (peculiar to Revelation) was the badge of the followers of Antichrist, stamped on the forehead or right hand (Revelation 13:16; compare Ezekiel 9:4,6). It was symbolic of character and was thus not a literal or physical mark, but the impress of paganism on the moral and spiritual life. It was the sign or token of apostasy. As a spiritual state or condition it subjected men to the wrath of Yah and to eternal torment (Revelation 14:9-11); to noisome disease (Revelation 16:2); to the lake of fire (Revelation 19:20). Those who received not the mark, having faithfully endured persecution and martyrdom, were given part in the first resurrection and lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years (Revelation 20:4). The "beast" symbolizes the anti-believer empires, particularly Rome under Nero, who sought to devour and destroy the early believers.

taw, "mark" (Ezekiel 9:4,6). In Ezekiel's vision of the destruction of the wicked, the mark to be set upon the forehead of the righteous, at Yahuah's command, was, as in the case of the blood sprinkled on the door-posts of the Israelites (Exodus 12:22,23), for their protection. As the servants of Yah (Revelation 7:2,3)--the elect--were kept from harm by being sealed with the seal of the living Yah in their foreheads, so the man clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side, was told to mark upon their foreheads those whom God would save from judgment by His sheltering grace. Taw also appears (Job 31:35) for the attesting mark made to a document (the Revised Version (British and American) "signature," margin "mark").

The MARK of the beast is opposite of Yahuah. The MARK is spiritual.
